

Interpreters, you think you know Millennials... ...but you probably don't!

Millennial Myths

The Reality

Implications for Interpreters

Millennials prefer informal learning environments.

Millennials aren't serious about being leaders.

Millennials don't like to hear criticism.

78% of Millennials believe that it's easier to learn in a traditional classroom than online.

15% of Millennials already have jobs in management positions.

80% of Millennials want feedback from their managers, and 75% yearn for mentors.

Millennials would rather learn directly from an interpreter than a sign.

Millennials that seek employment in interpretive services will most likely be extremely eager to learn.

Millennials will be willing to go above and beyond in order to be the best they can be.